

Maltus Faber Extra Brune - Rating by Joris Pattyn

Maltus Faber Brune Extra Aroma Appearance Flavor Palate Overall Total 7/104/58/104/515/20 3,8

Reasonable yellow head over dark-brown beer with orange highlights. Chocolate nose, pleasing jumble of fusels, portwine casks. Again chocolate in the taste, rich ethanol & fusel flavours. Rich taste, and the retronasal hops don't spoil a thing. Alcoholwarming, velvety texture but potent MF. Good body. Nice beer, rich, way better than average.

Joris Pattyn from ratebeer.com

Founding member of OBP in 1984, author of several articles for beer magazine in Belgium, Netherlands, U.S.A. and co-author of the Lambic/kland book. Juror on a number of contests since 1991 (GBBF, World Beer Cup); member of EBCU managing board.